

EMPLOYMENT FORM

1) The American Bar Association educational standards specify that full-time students may not be employed for more than twenty (20) hours each week during the school year. Accredited law schools must adopt policies consistent with these standards. Capital University Law School expects all students to comply with this standard. A student who violates this standard is subject to involuntary withdrawal.

Full-time students are those who are registered for twelve (12) to sixteen (16) credit hours during the spring and fall semesters.

- 1) _____ I work for pay on an average of more than 20 hours per week. I am a part-time student.

- 2) _____ I work for pay on an average of 20 hours per week or less. I am entitled to be a full-time student.

- 3) _____ I do not work and I agree to notify the Law School Registrar should I obtain employment for my paid working time exceeds an average of 20 hours per week during the upcoming term.
